

and annual fairs on the 23rd January, 14th May, and 23rd September. The parish of Newtownards contained, by the returns for 1841, 13,886 inhabitants, and the town 7,621 of that number.

GREY ABBEY is a post village and a parish, in the barony of Ards, same county as Newtownards, 6 miles south-east from that town, situated on the road leading to Kircubbin and Portaferry. It derives its name from, and is celebrated for its ancient abbey, founded in 1192 by Afric or Africa, wife of John de Courcy, and daughter of Godred, King of Man. It was a sumptuous edifice; and the great eastern window is a noble specimen of Gothic architecture. The ruins are highly interesting, and indicate that the pile was extensive. The weaving and working of muslin prevails in the town and parish; and in the former is an excellent hotel—the 'Spotted Cow.' The church, a small neat building, erected in 1788, contains some handsome monumental memorials of the Montgomery family. Population of the village 715.
