MERCHANTS, TRADESMEN, &c.

PROPESSIONAL

🕶 M'Carthy Arthur, apothecary

Crostwaite The linen manufacturer Mullaly Austin, (Vesey Arms) COllins John. Spa House Tavern

CENTLEMEN.

Crostwate Ths. then manufacturer; annually Austin, (Vesey Keating James, butter shop Kelly Catherine, publican Kirby James, draper and grocer Rall John, boot maker Radwell William, grocer Semple Mauly, innkeeper Stokes William, Bridge Inn Young Miles, mublican merchant

Young Miles, publican

MARYBOROUGH

If HE capital of Queen's county, is forty miles west of Dublin, and on the bigh road to Limerick. The town was formerly called Protector, and the county of Leix. It is now governed by a burgo-master and two bailiffs, who are chosen annually. It has the remains of a castle, and a fort, which is governed by Lord Maryborough. The assizes and sessions are held here for the county. The public buildings of Maryborough are the church a small but neat stone building, the Chatholic chapel, now building, which building, the Chatholic chapel, now building, which will, when finished, be handsome and spacious, the infirmary, the sunday and day schools, supported by subscription, and the gaol, an ancient building, in which much attention is paid to cleanliness, and the subscription.

POST OFFICE. -Post Master, Mr. Wm. Pilsworth. Mail to Dublin at seventeen minutes after eleven at night; to Limerick at forty-three minutes past two in the morning; to Abbeyleix at six in the morning; to Ballynakill at six in the morning; to Durrow at six in the morning; to Stradbally at six in the morning. Office hours from seven till eleven in the summer, and from eight till eleven in the winter. All

NOBILITY, CENTRY AND CLERGY.

Baldwin David, esq. Raheenduff Baldwin Lieuténani Broomfield Henry, esq. Borres-Ince Captain cottage Buds William, esq. Carter Robert, esq. Charrosk Carsan Major, Sheffield 2 Campion Polin, esq. V Cavanagh Rev. Peter, P. C.

| Hadgings Alexander, esq. Harpur Rev. Thos. New-park Kelly Wm. esq. Meelich Kemmis Rev. Thos. Straboe Lefroy Rev. Henry Moore Judge, csq. Lamberton-park Moore Lewis, esq. Cremorgan Cavanagh Pev. Peter, P. C. Mosse Arthur, esq. Cremorgan Craig Ensign, 2d vereran lattations (Connor Rev. Nicholas, Dean Gray Lieutenant and P. P. Graves Captain CNeil Lieutenant

Onions Robert, esq. P. C. C. Reilly Rev. Eugene, P. C. Percival Captain, Woodvale
Pigot John, esq. Woodbine-cottage
Quinn Campbell, esq.
Robinson John, esq.
Ryves Wm. esq. Portrane Sprig Charles, esq. Turpin Robt, esq. sub-sheriff Welch Robert, esq. White Robert, esq. Ann-brooke

MERCHANTS, TRADESMEN, &c.

PROPESSIONAL GENTLEMEN.

Delany Henry P. master in Chancery, coroner and solicitor, and at 20, Stephen's-green, Dublin Jacob Dr. Phelan Joseph, solicitor

Pilsworth William, apoth cary BOARDING SCHOOL TOR. GENTLEMEN.

Clare John, publican Clare Reduiond, woollen draper Jarke William, miller Delancy Patrick, publican

Dowd Richard, niiller, بر

Fallan Patrick, tavern keeper O'Connor Henry, school master Fitzpatrick Joseph, publican Ryan Patrick, publican Graves Robt, soap boiler & chandler Tracey Michael, woollen draper

Lowler Dennis, publican & grocer Lawler George, publican Lawler Michael, grocer & publican Lawler Thomas, publican Lee Edward, publican Martin William L.

Locke Thomas, grocer
M'Can Daniel, publican
Clare John, mublican
Clare John, mublican M'Evoy David, cerpent Molloy Arthur, woollen draper Molloy James, carpenter Molley John, carpente. Moran John, stuff manufacturer Doyle Mary, tanner

Dunn Bernard, publican

Dunn Mary, publican

Dunn Mary, publican and groceny

Fallan Patrick, tavern keeper

O'Connor Geo. painter & glazier

O'Connor Henry, school master

Haslem Serivington, iranmonger My Whetan Dennis, baker and woollen Haslem Scrivington, wommonge, Hill Jonathan, grocer & haberdasher, draper Whelan Michael, publican Whelan Michael, publican Kenmings John, baker & grocer Whelan Thomas, watch and clock Langte a Dennis, publican ' maker neaker Whelan William, publican

> STAMP OFFICE FOR THE COUNTY. Mr. Robert Welsh, distributor COACHES AND VANS.

> DUBLAN, the Mail at 17 minutes past eleven at night. The Linerick Day Coach, every day at two.
> LIMERICK, the Mail, at 43 minutes > past two in the morning.
> DUBLIN, the Marybotough Van, through Monastereven and Nass, at helf past nine. The Roccrea Van at half IMFRICK, a Van at half past two. ROSCREA, a Van at half past two.

Goods are conveyed to Dublin by Cars hired for the purpose,

Mirectory.

MAYNOOTH

Is a post and fair town, in the county of Kildare, twelve miles west of Dublin, twenty-seven east of but destroyed by Cromwell. Here is also a church, Mullingar, nine from Naas, and three from Kilcock. Here is the royal college for the education of candidates for the Roman Catholic priesthood, which was founded previous to the Irish rebellion, and called St. Patrick's college. It is capable of accommodating four lundred students, and is supported by an annual grant from Parliament of nine thousand pounds; its present superior, or president, is the Rev. Dr. Crotty. Near the college are the rains of an ancient corter. Near the college are the ruins of an ancient castle,

POST OFFICE.—Post Muster, Mr. John Mc Clean. The Dublin Mail arrives at ten at might, and is despatched at three in the morning by the Galway Mail. Office hours from seven in the morning till oleven at night.

NOBILITY, GENTRY AND CLERGY.

Austin Rev. Gilbert ∉Brennan Rev. Dr. Cannon Chas. esq, Moyglare Grotty Rev. Dr. College Henry Capt. Arthur, Lodge Park

Kelly Edw. T., M. D. Kennedy —, esq. Dowd.town Leinster His Grace the Duke of Montague Rev. Dr. Morgan Col. Ravensdale

Rowne Hamilton, esq, Rathcoffye Stanton Rev. Andrew Swords Thos. esq.

MERCHANTS, TRADESMEN, &c.

SHOPKEEPERS & TRADERS Lynch Bridget, publican
Anthony Michl. carpenter
Baghan John, baker

Anthony Michl. carpenter
Baghan John, baker

Anthony Michl. carpenter
Madden Edw. saddler and harness

Baghan John, baker √Boyce Ana, grocer Byrne James, chandler ∠Callaghau Pat. grocer Cassey James, brewer
Cummins Richard, grocer 7 Daly Richard, grocer Downs Thos. mason

Farrell Patrick, grocer Farrell Winford, grocer Graves John, saddler, &c. Groghwell Edward, publican and butcher

Kelly Clement, grocer Kennedy Pat. shoemaker 7

maker Mc Cormac Danl, publican Me Donnell Jas, publican Me Donnell Wm. Leinster Arms Mc Naghmey John, saddler & har ness maker
Murray Thos. baker
Alurtagh John, grocer
Quirk Patrick, tailor

COACHES, &c.

The Galway Mail for Dublin arrives at three in the morning, and returns for Galway at ten at night.

The Ballinasioe Day Coach for Dublin arrives on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at & past 3 in the afternoon, & returns for Ballinasioe on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at eight in the mounter. the morning.

The Longford Day Chach for Dublin arrives on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at four in the afternoon, and returns for Longford on Mondays, Wedn sdays, and Fridays, at ten in the morning.

The Tullamore Van for Dublin arrives on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at three in the afternoon, and returns for Tullamore on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at ten the morning.

MONASTEREVEN,

. 444 444 1 CO 3 B 8 1 F 8 8 1 8 1 8 1 8 1 8 8 8 8 8 1 4 C 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 9 9 9 9 9 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8

A Market town in the county of kildare, thirty premium to each, who honestly serves her apprendicts south-west from Dublin, ten north west from ticeship, and, in most instances, a small sum is given Athy, and ten north-east from Mountmellick, on the high road to Linerick, is pleasantly situated on the banks of the river Barrow. Near the town is the seat of the Marquis of Drogheda, called Moore Abbey, and the town by means of which goods are marriage portion. The other charitable institutions of this place are a dispensary, and several schools supported by subscription. The grand canal passes close to the town, by means of which goods are marriage portion. The grand canal passes close to the town, by means of which goods are marriage portion. high road to Limerick, is pleasantly situated on the banks of the river Barrow. Near the town is the seat of the Marquis of Drogheda, called Moore Abbey, which is delightfully varied with wood and water, and exhibits some very rich and picturesque scenery. This abbey was formerly an establishment for Franciscan feiars. The church is a modern building with a conveyed to and from Dublin. No inconsiderable support to the place are the extensive brewery and distillery, belonging to John Cassidy, esq, who is chief magistrate. The building is fighted with turf gas, and affords employment to many of the indusciscan feiars. The church is a modern building with a well proportioned tower at one end. On the road to Portarlington stands the Catholic chapel, a good skated building of the Gethic order. Here is also an English Protestant chartered school (under the direction of the incorporated society of Dublin), which educates and clothes one hundred and forty girls, apprentices them at the age of fourteen, awards a POST OFFICE—Post Muster, Mr. Grosvner Morgan. The Mail to Dublin at five minutes before one in the night. Mail to Limerick at five minutes past one. Mail to Portarlington at fifteen minutes before six in the morning. The office is open till eleven at night.

NOBILITY, GENTRY AND CLERGY.

Adair Geo. C.q. Bellegrove
Alloway W. J. 38q. Derries
Apiola Michi: L. esq. Sabine Fields
Bagot Mrs.
An Adaba Comp. Validada Archdale Capt. Ashtield

Archdale Col. Ratts Bagot Col. Numery Bagot Rev. John

Burnett Robt, esq. Fisherstown Casidy Harry, esq. Caridy John sen, esq. I Casidy Robt, esq, James's Town

169