SHOPKEEPERS, &c .- Continued. | ROMAN CATHOLIC CHEPEL, Loughbrick - | Police Station, Gilford -- Brudnell Sands Mary, straw bonnet maker, Banbridge st Sheals Chas. provision dealer, Mill st Singer Eliza Jane, straw bonnet maker, Mill st [Mill st Tewing John, farrier & blacksmith,

Thompson James, provision dealer, Street Thompson Jane, haberdasher, Mill Thon a Thos. grocer, Dunbar p Whitford Robert, grocer, Dunbar p

PLACES OF WORSHIP, And their Ministers.

ESTABLISHED CHURCH, Loughbrickland Rev. Jeffery Lefroy, vicar; Rev. James Elliott, curate. ESTABLISHED CHURCH, Tullylish—Rev.

William Butler Yeates, rector.

land-Rev. John Doran, parish priest; Rev. Bernard Mooney, carate.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPEI, Tullylish— Rowan Catholic Chapei, Tullylish— Rev. Edmund Magennis, parish priest; Rev. William Megin, curate. PRESBYTERIAN MEETING HOUSE, Loughbrickland-Reverend Edmnd. Brarkey,

RESBYTERIAN MERTING House, Tullylish-Rev. John Johnston, minister. Covenanters' Merting House, Loughbrickland - Rev. Saml. Simms minister WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL, Gillord

--ministers various.
Wesleyan MethodistChafel, Loughbrickland-ministers various.

Public Institutions, &c. FRYER HOSPITAL, Dunbarton-Henry M'Bride, physician, surgeon and apothecary.

Plummer, sub-inspector.
PoliceStation, Loughbrickland-Hugh Bailey , sergeant.

COACHES AND CARS. Through Loughbrickland.

To DUBLIN, the first Royal Mail, every morning, and the second Royal Mail. every night at ten.

To BANBRIDGE, a Car, every morning at eight and every evening at seven.

To BELFAST, the first Royal Mail, every morning at half-past three-and the second Royal Mail, every evening at a quarter to four.

To LURGAN, an Omnibus, every morning at half-past eight.

To NEWRY, a Car, every morning at halfpast eight—and an Omnibus, every evening at eight.

GLENARM

Is a thriving little post town and beautiful sea-port, minarets, and surmounted by stately domes; the demansion is a noble quadrangular pile, embellished with Glenarm, as taken in 1841, 881.

in the parish of Tickmacrevau, barony of Upper Glen- mesne is richly planted, and the grounds laid out with arm, county of Antrim, 133 miles N. Sy E. from Dublin, exquisite taste. Glenarm, possessing these attractions, 32 N. from Belfast, 22 N. w. from Carrickfergus, about has caused a considerable influx of visiters to it in the the same distance s.E. from Ballycastic, and 10 s. by w. summer season. The harbour, which is small, is chiefly from Larne, on the road constwise between the two frequented by vessels from the opposite coast of Scotlast named towns. It is delightfully situated in a deep land, which bring coal, and take back grain and limeglen opening to the sea, and on the Glenarm river, stone—of the latter, large quantities are exported by which here flows into the bay of its name: it is cres- Mr. G. S. Halloran, of this place, to England as well as to cented by bold romantic and imposing scenery, and at Scotland. The places of worship are the parish church, the distance of ten miles are the lovely villages of Cushendall and Cushenden. Glenarm Castle, now the beautiful seat of Edmund M'Donnell, Esq. was, for many years, the residence of the M'Donnells, earls of the education of children of either sex, endowed by Antrim, of whom Randal M'Donnell, Marquess of Mr. M'Donnell. Fairs are held in the months of Antrim, was attainted during the protectorate. The January, May, August, and October. Population of

POST OFFICE, Margaret Lingen, Post Mistress .- Letters from BELFAST, LARNE and CARRICK-FERGUS arrive every forenoon at a quarter before one, and are despatched every day at twelve.—Letters from BAL YCASTLE and CUSHENDALL arrive every forenoon at ten minutes before twelve, and are despatched every afternoon at onc.-Letters from Coleraine, Ballymena, Ballymoney and Londonderry arrive every afternoon at two, and are despatched every evening at five.

GENTRY AND CLERGY.

Boy'l Captain James Clark Mrs. Letitia Davidson Mrs. Margaret Ivers Rev. Charles Lanktree Mr. John Lyons Licutenant William M'Court Rev. John [Castle] M'Donnell Edmund, Esq. Glenarm Smyth Rev. Thomas Waddle Rev. Hugh

PROFESSIONAL PERSONS.

M'Auley Chas. surgeon & apothecary Kidd Abraham, surgeon Lanktree John, agent for the Marquis of Londonderry

SPIRIT & PORTER DEALERS. Darragh William Duncan James Duniop George

M'Auley Bernard, Antrim Arms M'Bride Hunter M'Ilwaine William

LIME MERCHANT. Hailoran George S.

SHOPKEEPERS & TRADERS. Beggs Stewart, saddler and harness maker

Cauthers William, watch maker Graham John, haberdasher M'Cambridge William, grocer and earthenware dealer

M'Mullan John, grain, iron & coal

M'Neill John, butcher Palmer Thomas, coal & salt dealer Park John, grocer & haberdasher Thompson William, carpenter Wharry Robert, leather cutter Wilson John, grocer and draper

PLACES OF WORSHIP. And their Ministers,

ESTABLISHED CHURCH-Rev. Churles Ivers. M. Court. ROMAN CATHOLIC CHAPEL-Rev. John PRESETTERIAN (Unitarian) MERTING HOUSE—Rev. Thomas Smyth, minister. PRESETTERIAN MEETING HOUSE—Rev. Hugh Waddle, minister.
WESLEYAN METHODIST CHAPEL-ministers various.

DISPENSARY-Abraham Kidd. surgeon. Police Station-Mr. James Ross, subinspector.

CARS.

To BALLYCASTLE, a Mail Car, from B. M'Cauley's, every noon at one; goes through Cushendall and Cushenden. o BALLYMENA, a Mait Car, from the Post Office, every evening at a quarter past five.
To LARNE, a Mail Car, from B. M'Cau-ley's, every day a quarter past twelve.

HILLSBOROUGH.

trict, chiefly for the Belfast merchants, and there is an of an act of parliament.

A MARKET town (formerly a parliamentary bo- extensive distillery in the town. The Corporation Arms rough), and a parish, is in the barony of Lower Iveagh, county of Down, 89 miles N. from Dublin, 124 s. by w. able house. The inhabitants received a charter of incorpofrom Belfast, 5 N. by E. from Dromore, and 4 s. by w. ration from Charles II. and the government of the town from Lisburn, on the road from Dublin to Belfast. was vested thereby in a sovereign, twelve burgesses, and This town is built on the slope of a hill, and there is so an indefinite number of freemen, who returned two much neatness in its construction, and it joins so har-members to the Irish Parliament until the Union, moniously to the fine demesne of the Marquess of when the elective franchise was abolished. General Downshire, that it may be called one of the most agree-able small towns in Ireland. It is much indebted, on many accounts, to the late marquess, who was owner of the town; he fell lifeless from his horse near Bless-ington, in the spring of 1845, and his sudden death cast a handsome building of free-stone, in the centre of the a gloom over the town and neighbourhood. The ma-nufacture of linea and cotton is carried on in the dis-district bridewell has been built, under the provisions

The parish church is a very elegant building, consist- | system of education, founded by the late marquess, and ing of a nave and cross aisles; the tower, which is a Sunday school, patronized by the family of that upwards of one hundred feet high, and the steeple one nobleman. The Downshire demenue is contiguous to ous object at a cons derable distance; there are also two west side of it. Hillsborough castle, now a ruin on the smaller towers at the sides. The interior corresponds demesne, was built in the reign of Charles I., and was organ, and every window is adorned with stained glass. A monument by Nollekens, to the memory of Archdeacon Leslie, crected by the Marquess of Downshire, to the Marquess of Downshire. There is also a second church of the Thursday. Fairs February 19th, May 20th, August 19th, for children of both sexes, conducted on the modern the town 1,338 of that number.

hundred more, form together a beautiful and conspicu- the town—the mansion, garden, and lawn being on the with the exterior in neatness, is furnished with a good afterwards constituted a royal fort, of which the here-Establishment, and there are two Presbyterian chapels, and November 18th. The parish contained, by the The charitable institutions are a dispensary, a school parliamentary returns for 1841, 6,474 inhabitants, and

POST OFFICE, Sarah Lutton, Post Mistress .- Letters from BELFAST and the NORTH OF [RELAND, also from Scotland, arrive every morning at half-past eight and evening at eight, and are despatched every morning at half-past four and afternoon at half-past five .- Letters from Dublin and the South, and various other parts of Ireland, also from England, arrive every morning at half-past four and afternoon at half-past five, and are despatched every morning at half-past eight and evening at eight.

NOBILITY, GENTRY AND | Cregan Charlotte, Main st

Mirectory.

CLERGY.
Anderson Jas. C. Esq. Ballynahinch st
Date Mr. Moses, Main st

Golfrey George, Main st Davis Rev. Evan, Market square Dill Rev. Samuel Marcus, Main st Downshire the Most Noble the Marques of, Hillsborough Castle Greer Rev. Thomas, Main st Hunter Mr. William, Lisburn st Hunter Mr. James, Lisburn st

Mant Venerable Archdeacon Walter Bishop, Hillsborough Meara Rev. William, Market st Mitchell Mr. John, Main st Mulholland Sinclair Kelburne, Esq. Eglantine

Murray Mr. Henry, Main st [st Rowan Major H. Wm. Bailynahinch Scott Mr. Edward, Main st Stevenson Mr. James, Lisburn st

PROFESSIONAL PERSONS. INCLUDING SCHOOLS.

HILLSBOROUGH SCHOOL, Main st-Reid, mistress [hinch st Gibson William, woollen draper and M'Lorn Daniel, surgeon Ballyna- haberdasher, Main st Moorehead John N. M.D. Main st Paxton John, Main st HOTEL.

Royal Corporation Arms, John Fawkner, Market square

SPIRIT & PORTER DEALERS. Adams Charles, Market square Armstrong James, Main st Armstrong Joseph, Main st Bigham Samuel, Ballynahinch st Blythe Mark, Market square Blythe William, Market square

Ellis William, Market square Godfrey George, Main st Irwin Samuel, Lisburn st King Patrick, Market square M'Coy John, Lisburn st Murray Daniel, Main st Patterson Isaac, Lisburn st Reid John, Lisburn st Scandrett Anthony, Main st Sterling Hugh, Main st Turner George, Main st

SHOPKEEPERS & TRADERS. Bradshaw Hy.& Co.distillers, Main st Currer John, watch mkr. Lisburn st Davis Henry, nursery and seedman,

Ogles grove Hamilton Abel, blacksmith, Ballynahinch st | hinch street Hunter Aaron, carpenter, Ballyna-Ellis Valentine, grocer, Main st Ellis Wm.provision dealer, Market sq Fish John, excise officer, Lishum st Robert Morrow, master; Rebecca | Fish John, excise onicer, this will be a proper of the fish John Reid, mistress | Think st | Gibson William, woollen draper and haberdasher. Main st | Market and Session House, Market | haberdasher, Main st

Godfrey George, saddler, Main st Green Anne, haberdasher, Market sq | clair Decluzeau, Esq. county inspector.
Halliday Francis, tallow chandler, Savinos' Bank and Loan Fund, BallyMarket square [street] nahinch st—(open Mondays and Wed.

Henderson James, nail maker, Main Henderson Jas. miller, Hillsborough ingram Thos. boot and shoe maker, Lisburn street

Jafferson Mary, milliner and straw bonnet maker, Lisburn st Lamb Sarah, haberdasher, Lisburn st Logan Alexander, tailor, Main st Loughlin James, saddler, Lisburn st M'Gawen Eliza, straw bonnet maker.

Ballynahinch street M'Quiggan Wm. grocer, Market sq Magill Daniel, brewer, Main st Moore Samuel, haberdasher, Main st Mulligan Francis, grocer, Lisburn st Reid John, grocer, Lisburn st Scott Thomas, baker, Main st

Stewart Robt. blacksmith, Lisburn st Whately Thomas, mail coach agent, Main street

PLACES OF WORSHIP. And their Ministers.

ESTABLISHED CHURCH-Rev. Walter B. Mant, Archdeacon of Down, rector; Rev. Evan Davis, curate. SAINT JOHN'S ESTABLISHED CHURCH

-Rev. William Meara.
PRESEYTERIAN MERTING HOUSE, Lisburn street-Rev. Samuel Marcus Dill, PRESENTERIAN MERTING HOUSE, Ballynahinch st-Rev. Thos. Greer, minister.

Public Institutions, &c.

square-Police Station, Main st-Henry Sin-

COACHES.
To DUBLIN, the first Royal Mail, every morning at half-past eight—and the second Royal Mail, every evening at eight.

To BELFAST, the first Royal Mail, every morning at half-past four—and the second Royal Mail, every evening at half-past five.

IRVINESTOWN—See LOWTHERSTOWN.

KILLASHANDRA,

ARIOUSLY written KILLESHANDRA and KILLE- | Hotel, a remarkably well-conducted house. Petty sesof Tullyhunco, county of Cavan, 77 miles N. w. from Dublin, 28 s. from Euniskillen, 19½ s. w. from Clones,

The places of worship are the parish church, a very Dublin, 28 s. from Euniskillen, 194 s. w. from Clones, 11 w. from Cavan, 8 s. s. e. from Ballyconnell, and 6 handsome stone structure, erected in 1842, a Presby-N. w. from Crossdoney; pleasantly situated on the Croghan, a tributary stream to the Erne. It occupies the latter situated about half a mile from the town. A a romantic site on a gently rising ground, environced by dispensary, established in 1811, is the principal charity. a chain of interesting lakes; and consists of a spacious, Contiguous to the town is Castle-Hamilton, the seat of clean and well-built street, in the centre of which is a R. H. Southwell, Esq., a spacious mansion surrounded well-arranged neatly constructed market-house. This is a flourishing and respectable little place, one of the best markets for linen in the county, and many of the inhabitants of the town and district are employed in its manufacture. The principal inn here is the Victoria

POST OFFICE. Main street, Thomas M'Cabe, Post Muster .- Letters from Dublin and all parts of the South of IRELAND, and from England, arrive (from CAVAN) every morning at seven, and are despatched every evening at a quarter past five.—Letters from Ballyconnell, all parts of the North of Ireland, and from Scotland, arrive every evening at five, and are despatched every morning at a quarter past seven.